Franc. M. Paul. THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1868.

PROS HUSTSVILLE.

HERraville, ALA., March 26, 1863. In a letter written from Pulseki, Tennessee, I assumed the position that a citizen remaining within the Federal lines might rightfully be required to abstain from all acts of hostilnot be with us, and the guilt will and does and a capital joke upon the Commandante. rest on them. The object of the law of na- Time passed. Despatches came in. The service of any kind they lose the character of rose. citizens and hecome soldiers, and it seems to me are subject to all the dangers and entitled to all the privileges of any other soldiers, and

It therefore follows that whenever any of paused. our citizens during the occupation of the country by the enemy choose to lay a side not refuse it?" their character as citizens, and become soldiers, they have a right to do so, and when indeed; a great deal worse than that He captured by the enemy cannot be treated other wise than any other prisoners of war are treat. made an offer to kiss her! And and - (at this were natives of Wayne county, and all of them some could tell. ? ed. So long, however, as they choose to main tain their character as citizens they are required by the laws of nations to abstain from Was there no recourse? Was there no rem Enquirer, they say, are freely and gratuitously all acts of hospitality. No Government has edy? What was she to do? the right to require any of its citizens to play the part of spies, and therefore, if any citizen ness. He had hardly thought the thing possiis arrested by the enemy and required not to ble. But it must be so. give any information or assistance to the opposite army whilst be remains within their ame' says he, 'this surpasses my comprehenlines, he-may do so without violating his obli- sion. Believe me justice shall be done you, cations to his own country, or in any manner though this officer is my friend-though be stock of paper on hand, and made an irreparacompromising his principles. This is very has a happy, innocent wife-several little un different from giving aid to the enemy or suspecting children-justice, madame, shall be showing any sympathy with them. The one done you, on my honor! But madame, would is the mere acknowledgement of a belligerent not a compromise and apologies be better for cal store, kept by the proprietor of the Jefferright, and the other is an act of treason. It is all parties? It would save yourself the pub important that these clear and well established heity and this happy family the chagrin of part of the enterprise. Cincinnati Commerprinciples should be understood, in order that such a disclosure. I earnestly recommend a we may not confound what is really no offence compromise. Think of this madame, leave with what is the very highest crime. Whether me your address and I will call this afternoon taking the cath of allegiance to the Lincoln and see you. But let me entreat you to com Government was an officere or not, depends promise the matter.' own Congress, was not imposed by order of The Colonel argued, the lady silently wept. At can be required to take an oath, unless he is sine clad cuttage like an angel of persecution about to become a juror, or to fill some office. In the dark days! The oath would have been a nullity if imposed uper citizens of the United States, how much more upon citizens of the Confederate States It is as M we were at war with Great Britain.

be treated as any other prisoners of war.

and our citizens should be compelled by force of arms to take an oath of allegiance to that Government. It would be a nullity, and would good saste, discretion and good sense. He is not in my opinion, be binding either in the referred to by the young ladies as a safe ad oath as a jurar, because our Government has rare counsellor and friend in those of honor; Commercial. a right to require its cifmons to take on the an by all he is regarded with respectful affection by all he is regarded with respectful affection to violate faces on the limit he Colonel sent for, and type the they are the views which will be allowed to the fittle count and the views which will be allowed to the fittle count and the views which will be allowed to the fittle count and the views which will be allowed to the fittle count and the views which will be allowed to the fittle count and correct. White I saw the departure of the Major with counts in the word, yet I would have been few and the views which will be well-shiped by the colones of the fittle count of the word, yet I would have been few and the views being the word, yet I would have been for such things and of the word, yet I would have been worth a great sind to the fittle count and it is and if it asks it will not be being the word of all persons the word of the fittle counts will be worded of such a few and the fittle counts and the views being the word of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the words and the view of the fittle counts are all the views and the view of the fittle view of the view of the fittle view of the fittle view of the view of the fittle view of the v

ON DITT OF THE DAY.

tractive to ladies. The way of it was this: slowly approached. As they reached a point The Colonel, albeit a notable humoris: himself, opposite, the lady reined in her horse and was over fond of a raid of wit upon the Com- I fted her bonny riding cap. The Colonel mandante. The Commandante as good natured staggered backas a church deacon, but not so demure. The ity during the occupation of the country by Commandante's wife, (heroine of this heroic your advice. That little matter has been the enemy. This is true, provided they ob. prose-poem) a little woman, rather piquant compromised. The innocent wi'e is satisfied, serve the usages of civilized warfare, and do and very pretty, not a whit jealous, but as and the unsuspecting children are at peace. not molest either the property or the person arch as a Portia. Well, the Commandante had Good day!' and the wretch of a Commandante. of the citisen, but when the enemy pursue the a prisoner -- a female spy! On this hint the and that witch of a wife, dashed off at full course now being practiced by the Yankee Colonel spake in good round terms of raillery speed! army in Tennessee, they become outlaws, and during a morning visit, when my laly, the are not entitled to any of the rights and privi- Commandante's wife came in. She was in her regretted, for the sake of humanity, that the Colonel bowed, and in the excess of his bon to himself. He commends it to me as a theme enemy should have adopted a policy so pal- homie continued to assail the Commandante, pably in violation of all the usages of war, directing his remarks to the good lady, who and should have given to this contest such a took them in excellent part. Thereafter was dark and hideous aspect. Whatever may be a bit of pleasant leave taking, and the Colonel the result, and whatever course our Govern retraced his way homeward, full of cherry ment may see proper to adopt, the fault will spirit and the glow of a moreing well spent, tion's in requiring citizens not to take up arms day close I. The sun went down. The moon ony : or to engage in any acts of hostility is to rose, and the Colonel slept. The mext mornsoften the rigors of war and to confine its ing betimes he was to be seen over great packevils as much as possible to those in the re- ages of paper, with red tape and enormous spective armies, and therefore an hostile ar- scale. There was no thought of anything but my holding a country is bound to respect the work! work! Work! The Colonel was in rights of person and property of citizens who something of a hurry, a little cross and very are non-combatants. When, however, citi busy. At ten o'clock precisely a visitor, a lady

> "Good morning ma'm, says he. 'Is this Colonel - ?' says she.

'It is ma'm,' replies he, 'what can I do for batants, and will cause them, if captured, to tice; that morning she had gone to the Com. the other side of the river were any criterion,

'Well, ma'm, says the Colonel, 'he surely did

The lady resumed. He did not refuse. No gave her the pass and then - (borrible to relate) Indiana, on Saturday night. Some of them point in the recital the poor lady's heart seem.

Jeffersonian, which, with such papers as the dark iss her?

Was there no recourse? Was there no rem Enquirer, they say, are freely and gratuitously loss to be have reason to be thankful that

The Colonel mused. It was an ugly busi

'Madame,' says he, with great dignity, 'Mad own Congress, was not imposed by order of The Colonel argued, the lady silently wept. At posing it, in the darkness, to be a large dog. their own President, and had we been still in last after much elequence, she agreed to take The animal continued out Seventh street to the Union, would not have been binding, be ber leave and be governed by the Colonel's ad- Mound, not offering to molest any one, and cause no private citizen of the United States vice and a compromise. She slid out of the entered the yard attached to the house occu-

The Colonel bent his head in thought.

Do you know the Major?

An elegant gentleman. He rides a superl charger, sits his steed like a Marmaluke, and is never seen en disabille. He is the prince of jurors and witnesses in court, and therefore to Him the Colonel sent for, and trgether they

the position weak line afternoon slowly alipped an resiste here, resolute and bound to contract the forest and bound to contract the forest and bound to contract the forest and bound to contract the second the second to contract the second the second the second to contract the second to contract the second the second to contract the second the se

BY GRAPE-VIEE AND OTHERWISE. longer shadows. It was dusk. The children were playing in the garden walks. The horses were prancing on the common. Suddenly the voice of laughter is besed ; suddenly the forms I have an excellent story upon my friend of two gaily mounted riders appear. It is the the Colonel. Of the true and loyal blood of Commandante! The Colonel stood in the portion the Chd Commin is he; a veterau scholar and as fliey approached. Who was the lady? The man, as well as soldier : erect, com Commandante's wife, Poor thing! The heart pact, with a brusque courtesy, especially at of the roldier dissolved in pity; but the pair

"Colonel' cried she I have concluded to take

The C lonel bowed his head, the enter his cottage a happier and also a wiser man leges of civilized warfare. It is deeply to be household costume and looked like a girl. The He mused long, but he did not keep the joke for a novel to be entitled --THE WIFE'S REVENOR!

AN INCIDENT ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK .- The following extract from a letter from Fredericksa pleasant incident in camp life, which, no of the expedition is Northern Alabama, doubt, helped materially to relieve the monot-

I must tell you of an agreeable episode to our camp life, which occurred a low days since. It is acknowledged that the Federalwith all their faults, have some capital bands with all their faults, have some capital bands in their ranks. Recently one of those organizations came down to the river side opposite Fredericksburg, and favored our boys (who had gathered in large numbers to listen) with the defence of the Yazoo river and to meet the enemy at Greenwood. After having received a thousand bales of cotton at Yazoo City, and a full supply of wood, able left the wharf on Friday evening. She took on about three hundred bales above and proceeded on her way to the point of conflict, all in high a variety of popular pieces, in the best style zens do take up arms, or engage in military was amnounced. She entered, and the Colone! Applause from the audience on each side tollowed. The band then struck up "Dix e," and executed it in a credible manner. At its conclusion, our soldiers sent up such a shout as made the walkin ring. This was followed by "Yankee Doodle," when a burst of applause from the Federals followed. Finally, the band played "Home Savert Home." Savert Home. 'It is main,' replies he, 'what can I do for consequently, if captured, should be treated as prisoners of war. But they cannot, at one and the same time, be both citizens and seldiers. Any acts of hostility, such as taking up arms or conveying information, will deand if the frantic cheers, that went up from mandante for a pass to ----. Here she our fleighboring enemies were much affected. [.Charlotte ( N. C ) Bulletin.

> A SECRESION NEWSPAPER OFFICE DESTROYED. from Richmond, Virginia, arrived at Richmond posted as to the political tendencies of the evening about three hundred of them fell erro line and marched to the office of the Jeffersonian. Passing a wood pile, at the word of command, "Shoulder, wood," each provided himself with a billet. They entered the office without much ceremony, emptied the cases. stattered the type over the floor, smeshed the press with sledge hammers, destroyed the ble ruin of the whole concern ins tew minutes The job was accomplished very quickly. ceeding to demolish a small book and periodi managed to escape from its cage, in the build- midsion susings, in Lynchiser, Va. she took to be a huge dog climbing the stone wall with cat-like agility, oscilating its long unit slowly, and growling in a hoarse threatalarmed her parents, who were terrified beyoud bounds at the night of the animal and all efforts in the of which he scratched for some time. In a ew moments the keeper arrived, and, after a Capt. S. R. Boswan, sight of God or man. It is not like taking an viser in affairs of love; by the gentlemen as a animal and returned it to its cage .-- [Cinn.

The Army and the Contrabands.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ANSTRUMENT TOUR PROPERTY.

Mosna; March 30:—A special dispatch to be Appeal, dated Panella, Wise: March 28th. says: The Memphis Bulletin of the 24th says he route to leton river by way of Deer ceek is reported to be working finely. The canal operation is impeded by shelling the rederal batteries at Fort Pemberton lave of position is reported se impreguable during General Summer is dead.

The circulation of the Cincinnati Enquirer for Bragg, had halted at Knoxville; the base will be cheerfully affor ied by Your Obed't Ser'vt. of Kentucky movements.

MOBILE, March 27th .- The steamer Alice ar rived this morning from Havana, having left there on the 15th, with an assorted cargo.

Mobile, March 30 .- Advices from Okolone say that the enemy is marching South in Ten- Ga. to burg by an officer in Gen. Lee's army, relates nessee, desolating farms. The supposed aim

From the Yazoo City Banner.

Burning of the Natches. Mr. Epiron : The Natchez was one of the finest spirits, and hoping a great deal from her eminent power. We had reached a point on the Taxoo river, between Castleman's and Barton's, about eighty mile-

Some nine hundred paroled prisoners, taken re-cued by the exertions of Mr. Burt'n and others wi

LYNCHUUMG, VA. STAPLES & DILLARD.

Always out hand a heavy shock of Manufactures and the sing TOBACCO, currented as represented as represented as the loss of the same of the

J. P. BONDURANT Col. Comd'g Bendes [mar24-lw]

M. J. HUGHES, Attorney at Law, Claim Agent and Nor

ALAIMS of every description against the Confede rate flowersment settled with accuracy and dispatch. Attends all the Confederate States confe

THE STARLAND. FORMER WILITARY BLADES, THEIR

To Florists and Gardeners. Mapical Pustarino Deroe, No. 5.) Atlanta, Ga., March 26, 1863.

WILL purchased at this Depot the seeds of the Garden Poppy, in small quantities GAOIUSE S. BLACKIE, mar29-3w Surgeon & Medical Purceyor, C. S. A.

To the Public.

Manicas Pruferico Deror. No 8. BOTTLES and vials, of all kinds purchased at this Depot. All donations, however small, will be gratefully received. There are many bottles lying about idly, in private houses, which if sent here would materially and the aid the working of this department and benealt the sick spidiers.

GEORGE S. BLACKIE, mar29-3w Surgeon & Metical Purveyor, C. S. A.

To the Ladies.

MEDICAL PERVEYING DEPOT, No. 5. Less been prohibited at Nashville.

It is reported that the advance goard of the series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

It is reported that the advance goard of the series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

Series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The series in the cultivation of the Garden Poppy.

The seri A DIRE! you may rouder emential service to the

GEORGE S. BLACKIE.

$30,000.00 TO EXCHANGE. THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GEORGIA TREASURY NOTES POR CONFED ate money, at current rates. Apply at Tunnell Hill.

WANTED.

A BOY to cook for a mess of 4 or 5. For information a supply to Sergeant Griffin, Co. "C." Capt. T's Batt. S. S. [mar29:1w*]

FOR CONGRESS. WE are authorized and requested to announce Hon. SAM. A. SMITH, of Bradley county as a candidate for the Confederate Congress, from the

Dr. A. WADGYMAK EMOVED his office to Main st., one door Kennedy's brug Store. [jau7-law3m*

> LEIPER & MENEFER .. PRODUCE DEALERS AND COMPISSION PORSESSANTS MURRER BRESONO TRANS.

Oct. 28th, 1862--17 "SOMETHING NEW." 100 Bush. Herd grass seed, sow from Feb. to J 5000 Spanish Segars. 15 grow Jest quality, Lacafer Matches.

SOUTHERN FIELD & FIRESIDE.

SUBSCRIPTION ADVANCED TO MA PER YEAR or respectfully announces that from and after the latest MARCH, she price for the FIEED AND PIRESIDE

No deductions made to clubs, and no subscriptions received for less than six months. Postura ters will Increased exertions will be used to make the paper

"THE RANDOLPHS, OF RANDOLPH HALL," will be completed in the 10th number. Back numb containing this interesting romance, can be supplied Prize November of INDIA MORBAT.

THE LOST WILL. This will can through several numbers of the paper and will for through several numbers of the paper, and will be accompanied by original Tales, Essays and Poems by the best waiters in the country. As only a fixed supply of paper can be had, the edition is limited, and these wishing to secure this favorite family paper would do well to subscribe early. making remittances to particular Post Office, County and States and to send no local

> MASONIC FRMALE INSTITUTE. CLEVELAND, TENN.

Augusta, Ga.

Rev. D. N. Brodehave; Principal. THE next Senson of this factive will come to the FIRST MONDAY of January 1988, of the direction and professorable of the Rev. Mr. S. haw, who has had charge of it for the less couple, and ve night may, maiverant satisfaction of the Trusteen, patrons and supple. There never was a hea-ter time for men to educate their daughters than now ter time for men to educate their denghters than now—money is plenty—compthing a former raises belief two prices, and the Tuitien to this School is the same that it was when everything was at low figures. What exchange an thous in new for a man who mig fects to educate his daughter? None. Became here, in Cleveland a healthy locality, we have an instruct, with an excellent instructor, aided by a sufficient correct health and their partonage. Let one and all put their abunder to ten, wheel and bestd up such a tichnol as will be entitled about better to us and as health our town.—

tation it sustained in "thehetter days of the Rep

TERMS OF TUITION. In Music, Plano, Guitar or

y the middle of the term. ient boarding houses kept purposely for young ladies at reasonable rates, thought from $15 to $20 pc. Becretary and Tressurer.

SOLDIERS ND Surgeons of Hospitals, please notice. A. Wni. Henry Hughes, e lad of 17, left Louisville, Kentucky, and went to Prankfort in September last, to re-dulust in the Confederate army, since which time I have heard nothing of him. He is doubtless, in the itmy nomewhere, unless he has been kuled in battie, what regiment he joined. Any friend of mine, or other person, who can pive me information of this boy, will do me a great kindness, and relieve the anxiety of an afflicted mother, and sisters, by writing to me concerning him, and directing to Hinggold is me concerning him, and directing to Hinggold is a JAS. N. HUGHES, Assist Surgeon.

Bings Hospital TO MERCHANTO & SUTLERS.

I UST received and for sale low

1+426

Amarille, March 32, 1963. for the payment of the oregular A claims in Ea-t Temperate, against the Quarter-manter's Department, ha-been transferred to the un-dersigned, and the attention of persons holding such clasms is called to the following paragraphs issued from the Treasury department: COMPTHOLLER'S OPPER Det. 24. II. Whenever property has been taken and used of troops as supplies by order of a commanding officer (including any commissioned officer in command ) to sown by his eignature, or in case of a tieneral, that of his Adjutant, or that of a Quartermaster Commissary or other authorized fill er, or when a appraisement made of sigh property is approved be such officer, a fair and just compensation should be made for the same according to the approvement, (if not excessive.) or according to the approval, (when not appraised.) under the head of supplies for V. In case the approval of a commanding officer. or other authorized officer, cannot be obtained for such supplies, such claims should be presented to Congress, or to some exemining officer who may appointed by the eccretary of War.

No more outstanding claims can be paid at this office, unless the forms of the accounts are in accordance with the provisions in the above paragraphs.
T. H. ATKINSON,
mar26-1m Captain and Post Quartermaster.

> 200,000 ACRES OF LAND FOR SALE AF AUCTION.

THE Florids, Atlantic & Gulf Central Rail Boad Company has 290,000 Acres of Land, which was appraised in 1859, and conveyed to two Trustees to secure the payment of Free Land Bends issued by the Company; which I shall offer for sale at Lake City. On Wednesday the 13th of May, 1853.

These Lands are valuable for purposes of cultivation (many of them.) others for timber, turpentine and tar-situated in the most healthful portion of the State, and der great man ements to persons disposed to invest money in lands. Private sales will be made entil the day of sale marze-tda

WM. O. SEFFREYS. DISSULUTION.

DISSULUTION.

THE firm of Quinby & Bohamon, of Memphia, Tenn.

In this day dissolved by mutual consent. All personahoving claims again a said firm will presen the same to W. T. Quinby, who is alone authorised to pay, and all persons who are indebted to said firm will make immediate payment to said Quinby will has been authorised to settle said firm's business

WM. T. QUINBY,
W. A. ROBINSON

JAS. S. CLAGHORN, Special partner
Etowah, Gn. Jan. 21, 1863. [fehlo 3m.]

HEADQUARTERS, VOL. AND CONSCRIPT BURNAU.

Hendquarters immediately imperson, or by I tter, for instructions. All detailed men from the Army of Tennessee in this sub-department, will report, and show by whose authority they have been detailed.

By command: Only M. MAGEVNEY Jr. By command Col. Capt. N. R. Barwan marts 1m. Adt.

MORAPHEL & INHY. LYBOHRURG, YIRGIDIA

COMMISSION MERCHANTS

And Agents for the sale of
How Orleans Sugar and Moinases,
Manufactured and Smoking Triagens
apost for tokesce in the State, with great advance in shipping to interior merchants.

TAKEN UP

CIRCULAR.

OFFICE OF COMMANDANT OF CONSCRIPTS, Knoxville, March 16, 1813. Officers commanding recruiting detachments in this chats, are hereby ordered to send in their weekly returns to this office promptly. Any officers failing to make such returns, will be immediately arrested. La. Col. E. D. RLAKE,

T. S. Water. W. W.

A BOUT four days ago, twelve negro men employed in the iron weaks at Ktownh, Georgia, abscorded in a body, and it is supposed, in company with, and is the amountains of a white man, who had been employed at the works. The above reward, will be paid for the approximation of said negroes, or 250 for set one represented and seturned, or imprisoned Pere's E. M. & M. Co., Eleouph. tie.

In Chancery of Marrison, Tourence ROST. CARROR, VR. J. O. RUSTON AND OTHERS will on the 18th day of April 1863, at my effect in Harrison, take and state an account of the sinttern seterated to me by said court at December term, 1862, when and where the parties are requested to have their proof.

2. G. JONER.

CI'RAM.

N. E. GARDNEIL

Valuable Chattanoga Property for Sale
OFFER for sale the place where I reduc, in C atta and the sore, and other valuable city need orty. The home place cubility of six acres, well in proved, flow, never failing water, choice fruit &c.
marks tf JORE L. NOPKINS.

Presenty of the Dead.

W MEN CLOVER MAKELA JOHN T. W. PRENCH. TOBA CO. OFFICERS PAR AC COURS AND REGIMES (200) BOXES